

Lawrence Blumberg and Lois Tilton to join
Kurzman Eisenberg Corbin & Lever, LLP

Kurzman Eisenberg Corbin & Lever, LLP is pleased to announce that Lawrence S. Blumberg and Lois Tilton, experienced trusts and estates attorneys, will become partners of the firm effective January 1, 2017. Mr. Blumberg and Ms. Tilton are currently partners of Gerald & Lawrence Blumberg, LLP (“GLB”), a firm that has represented individuals, families, businesses and charities for almost 40 years. Several other attorneys and staff affiliated with GLB will also join the firm, including trusts and estates attorneys Emily Johnson and Lois Arenson and corporate attorney Gadi G. Hill. Mr. Hill and Ms. Johnson will be of counsel to the firm.

“I’m very pleased to welcome the GLB team to Kurzman Eisenberg” said Jessica Galligan Goldsmith, co-Managing Partner of the firm. “I have known Larry and Lois for more than 20 years, and their group is a perfect fit for our large, sophisticated trusts and estates department. We look forward to working with them and their clients.”

Mr. Blumberg, Ms. Tilton and Ms. Johnson are all ranked “AV - Preeminent” by Martindale Hubbell and have been recognized as “Super Lawyers” in the field of estate planning and probate. In addition, Ms. Johnson specializes in international trusts and estates law, is a Fellow of the American College of Trusts and Estates Council (ACTEC) and is also a member of the Society of Trust and Estates Professionals.

“Lois and I are so excited to join a superb law firm like Kurzman Eisenberg” noted Mr. Blumberg. “The synergy among our lawyers and staff, together with the firm’s capable, full service platform, will provide great benefit to our clients.”

On January 1, 2017, the firm will relocate its New York City law office to 521 Fifth Avenue, formerly the home of GLB.
